So, what was learned from the Occupy St Paul's experience ?
The impression was given that it was a spontaneous grass-roots event.
In reality it was an international organisation.

The Climate Camp bank account was used to deposit the monies raised from donations.

There was an inner circle of organisers who all denied being the organisers.

It was facilitated by professional "protesters"

People were given-to-believe It was {limited} anarchy

People were left to self-organise but within a frame-work of working-groups

People had to learn the wavy-hands-routine People came looking to get involved People were directed to join little "working" groups

People were studied People were groomed
People were evaluated

It was an entrainment camp.
It was a training for people who self-profiled by self-identifying with the "Vision" of the camp; People power - if we had the numbers - camping in the city refusing to leave social-mingling / intelligence-gathering who else is out there who is willing to dedicate their lives who is willing to risk their Liberty

"Live"-streaming Actions / interviews Facebook
Profile - tracking {comments, shares, views, messaging

It took a few weeks for some people to start realising that there was mind-control at-work there were masses of arguments between people who'd been asking questions to "facilitators" - but getting fobbed-off people getting closed-down in wavy-hands meetings

People sitting at the edges feeling / knowing Occupy was a set-up seeing between the veils spliff's n chats n observations making some sense of what didn't make sense looking for Truth in the chaos

Finsbury Square

Wandering around A social scene like an alter-native-reality staying anonymous yet getting seen drip, drip, drip, drop

Commonly-Known-As-Dom had been staying down at St Paul's had been practicing his Common-Law was recording and publishing videos of what he was seeing and questioning what was going on and was getting driven mad for trying to make sense of non-sense

Winter closing in People's lives on-hold Dependant on Occupy for survival
Home, food, friends, purpose, belief

The Bank of Ideas suddenly opened in a squatted bank by John Phoenix Rainbow and the London Squatter/Rainbow Crew in conjunction with / yet separate from Occupy

This was a little different from Occupy: in-doors contained smaller numbers of people relatively secure a big ground-floor open-plan meeting space lots of rooms for people to sleep but the top-floor kept locked for only the Rainbow Squatter Organisers The pigs of Animal-Farm

::

By October it was fairly obvious to some yet out-rageous to all others that Occupy was an-inside-job an mi5 operation to gather information on what ever real grass roots people were foolish enough to be seen anywhere near there {and there were plenty who went no-where near} an anthropological social experiment by the time the Bank-of-Ideas opened things had played-out it was obvious there was an inside and an outside the dividing circumference was the occupiers who hadn't figured it out but at the Bank of Ideas at least Pheonix and Tom Hamlin & Co were living with us there was enough opportunity to speak there were sincere questions being asked that deserved to be answered about the money about the inner circles calling the shots about the media-relations about Tavistock and "Social Dreaming" about the Flower Revolutions and the Occupy-Fist about The Climate Camp about under-cover cops about mi5 infiltration from the top=down about people like Charlie Veitch being included while many critical-thinkers were being excluded Questions about how the leaders and facillitators were abusing the wavy-hands-meetings as a means of manipulation of group-think and of blocking un-desire-ables from being heard de-platforming individuals with slur-tactics and then tarring all undesire-ables with the same brush

But, instead of things being discussed there wasseparation and evictions there was character-smearing and threats there were no honest discussions eventually by New Years Eve 2011 the bank of ideas was in such chaos that the "Tranquility Team" were a roming mob throwing individuals out, making people homeless all "love and rage" without the Love !!

A couple of days later there was a"meeting" with new facillitators from on-high and load of Occupiers who didn't live there who took control and "concensed" a motion to empty out everyone except Pheonix and his Rainbow brigade of trusted Rebels not long after that the whole Occupy thing dis-pursed and disappeared from St Paul's too

New Laws were enacted

Pheonix and his Rainbow crew led a band of mystical believers to squat the Queens Residence by the Thames but ended up at Runnymede

While Occupy became a many-headed monster turning up at all the anti-fracking site camps and taking-over with the wavy-hands routine with Delphi Technique mind-control-methods

Occupy was a training camp an entrain-ment camp a mind-control experiment an MK-ultra+ experiment where "connectivity" was the drug when the "smart-phone" was still quite new when artificial intelligence and face-recognition and Big-Data and digital-profiling were science-fiction-films-dystopia-fantasy when the Battle of the Beanfield was still recent history what happened in the 7 years between Occupy and XR ?

who thinks that mi5 are not involved ? who decided that the Climate Camp / UK UnCut etc etc amalgamate into 1 XR

Who was present at the inauguration of XR, the so-called meeting of about 15 people at Gail's house ?

What's the relationship between The Climate Camp and The Climate Mobilisation ?

Who decided that "Climate-Change" is the optimal-lever to shift the collective paradigm to transform Society

Who decided the timing of the "launch" of XR

How could mi5 NOT have infiltrated XR when they surely had infiltrated "Occupy" from the top>down

I'm sorry this isn't some sensible document a clear-cut precise description of Occupy Occupy was a "poison-cup" a mind-virus an hallucinogen a solution-full-of-problems but if it were not for this video {and a very few others} recorded one day at the bank of Ideas and around St Pauls there would be no record of how dodgy Occupy was and history would be claimed by the victors

Why are George Barda and Pheonix Rainbow not being presented as spokespersons and public faces of XR

While XR claims to "stand on the shoulders of giants" it's not easy to write one's own version of events
