

ORIGINAL CAUSE and CORRUPTED EFFECT

Civilization exists by cosmic consent, subject to change without notice.

A theme that runs through most ancient legends is that there was once a very advanced high culture of people who met their end in some form of catastrophic event, either a by a gigantic flood or by fire.

The first time this occurred, the survivors of this catastrophe, due to their higher mental state, were able to ascertain over subsequent generations that there was a regular pattern to these events.

And so they set about the task of building structures that encoded the astronomy, geometry and mathematics needed to calculate these cycles so as to activate the left brain rational mind, and to formulate the symbolism and mythology to engage the right brain imagination and intuition to aid in giving form to the deductions of the rational mind.

The symbology and mythologies were employed to maintain a collective memory of the cataclysmic events and the encoded structures were designed to be decoded when society had reached a technological level where the astronomy, geometry and mathematics would be understood.

A more subtle reason for this methodology, is that the profound fear generated from such a cataclysmic event would split and fragment the mind which would in turn diminish the individuals psychological capacity to maintain a balanced perspective (understandably) and this internal division, if not conquered, will inevitably lead to an external division that would devolve into rational feudal systems and emotional religious systems.

And so this methodology also targets the questioning and inquisitive nature of Man, of either right or left brain persuasion, as there are always those who will choose [Heretics] to explore their times and expand their minds, despite the authorities' dictates and torture chambers.

Having suggested a benevolent origin to this ancient warning, I would now like to suggest how the symbolism and mythology employed has been distorted into a malevolent parasitic governance system that created a game of "Good" vs. "Evil" to keep us divided and to exploit that division to feast on our energy and plunder our resources.

To show this I am adapting an internal psychological formula to show a sequence of events that result in the position we find ourselves today.

The formula is: Impression – Reaction – Conduct – Consequence

Impression: Is the initial stimulus that draws the attention of the mind

Reaction: Are the initial thought processes that appear in the mind

Conduct: Is the external expression of those thought processes

Consequence: Is the result of those external expressions

In the sense used;

Impression: is a hand drawn image of the Trimurti themed division of the Precessional Cycle that is used as a means of tracking the periodic catastrophic events.

Reaction: is a chart that shows a descent of the corrupted institutions created to utilise the Trimurti theme, to procure the resources and labour to ensure their own survival in such an event, so that they are in a position to reintroduce these themes to the descendants of the pockets of survivors who didn't have the luxury of a pre-warning or safe haven.

Conduct: is a short list of the main players that shows how they ply their trades.

Consequence: is how all the above effects us in the real world and how we, through our own consent, are complicit with it.

And so, in concluding this introduction that shows the absolute necessity for Order on this planet due to our Chaotic cosmic environment and as a way of continuing the existence of our species to fulfil our cosmic potential.

So, the question that needs to be asked is;
Is this how Order should be achieved?

My motive in laying it all out, in all of its deranged glory, is that by seeing the Game, we are in a position to make the choice of whether we wish to continue playing or to leave and create something more aligned with the original plan.

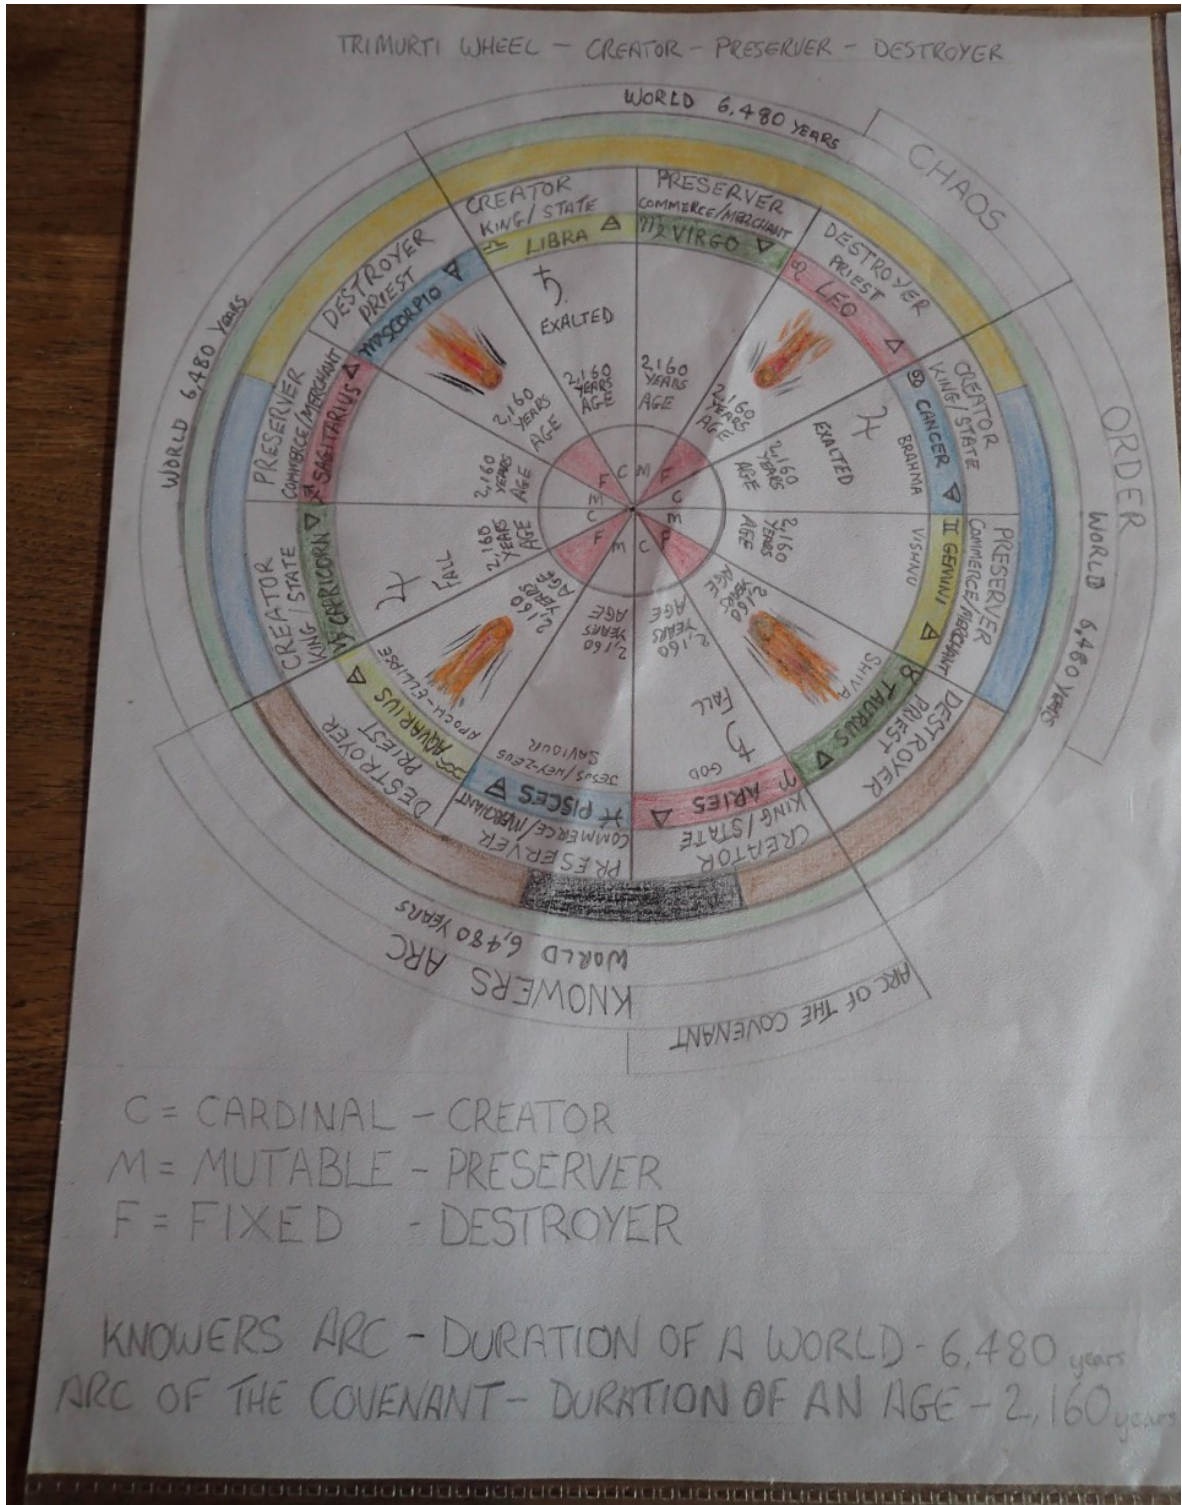

Links at the bottom of this post will show where to look to achieve this, as well as the scientific data that confirms regular cosmic impact events and the source of the Trimurti cyclical pattern, that has been the bulk of my particular study for the past 11 years.

And so, for your consideration.

The exploitative way to bring Order from Chaos

Conduct:

Brahmin Priest: Kronos; the Time Lord [G.O.D.s Law], targets Time and Space through Division and Allotment [Saturnian Cult]

Creator: Brahma-Zeus [Kings/State Governments] Law of the Land, targets the Body through Force [Solar Cult]

Preserver: Vishnu-Poseidon [Commerce] Law of the Water, targets the Mind through Desires [Lunar Cult]

Destroyer: Shiva-Hades [State Religions] Law of the Dead/Debt, targets the Spirit through Fear [Fractured Stella Cult]

G.O.D: Governmental Ordinance Department, administered by the Saturnalian Brotherhood

Trimurti, A Political Methodology: “This division in religious worship which eventually led to the caste system shows the power of theocratic tyranny, the Brahmins, seeking to justify the method whereby the control of the masses is vested in the hands of a few, when preaching in the pagodas, even now say:

"See how logical is this system of division of the people into castes. It was formed in the likeness of the divinity, Zeus<sup>1</sup>, sovereign master of all things, but taking no action himself. This is the Brahmin priest. Brahma, the God who creates, who acts, who directs, that is the aristocrat or the prince ; Vishnu, the God who preserves, that is the artisan, the merchant, who produces taxes, preserving and assuring the prosperity of the State by his work and industry. As for Siva, the terrible God, he keeps the Soudra [peasant] in a state of humility and obedience appropriate to his station in life”.

Consequence:

As i will be showing a pre-doctrinal perspective on Religion and Myth, they will need to be clearly defined, and this will be followed by a breakdown to show how the symbolism around these subjects has been corrupted and then utilised to draw us in into a system of voluntary slavery.

Voluntary implies choice, and it is this choice that makes us all party to every institutional crime whether domestic or international, and that's from the moment when we first weighed anchor and left from our respective virgin berths to navigate the pirate infested, muddy waters of commerce, right up to the present times with the ongoing shitegeist.

Religion:

“Now let us turn to the word ‘religion’ and try to decide just what we mean by this term. As far as we are concerned, religion has nothing to do with any creeds, dogmas, rights or churches; and there is no need to believe in a personal deity, or indeed in any God at all... We will use the term simply as a recognition of, and a communion with, the soul of that in which this visible Universe lives, moves and has its being. Here the term ‘soul’ means the emotional, mental and spiritual states of consciousness, both in man and nature – nature being considered as an intelligent force.

You will see that here the word ‘religion’ involves two things:

- 1) Knowledge in contradistinction to belief.
- 2) Action that is direct communion with the Unseen, be it called God, a god or a natural force manifesting as Law and Order”.

The Forgotten Mage: The Magical Lectures of Colonel C.R.F. Seymour, edited by Dolores Ashcroft-Nowicki

Myth:

“The word as it will be used does not mean a supposed historical story which may or may not be true. For us it means a sequence of symbols used as an aid for learning, memorising and understanding a religious process, the true meaning of which is kept secret from the uninitiated. Man always tries to define and synthesize his religious experience. He rationalises them and they become myth with characters as symbols of the myth. For the outer world, a tale in historical form is built up. For the initiate, however, the myth is a key to a psychological and mental process which is carried out within the soul of the initiate. It is not historical fact. For the cult initiate, things are not what they seem to the uninitiated.

It was the ignorance and superstition of the middle ages that turned myth into supposed history. Today some Christians continue to confuse myth with history. Others deny that it has meaning and look upon myths as fairytales for children. Both are wrong. Myth is a method for recording psychological experiences”.

The Forgotten Mage: The Magical Lectures of Colonel C.R.F. Seymour, edited by Dolores Ashcroft-Nowicki

The Bible is a multi layered work that is directed towards your minds eye:

Matthew 6:22

The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

So, on one level we have a character named Jesus, whose story symbolises an internal journey within the soul of an initiate and describes a psychological and mental process by which the initiate is tasked with utilising their own innate faculties such as, Imagination – to aid in a mental visualisation of the demons and devils which symbolise our selfish nature and traits – Intention – to focus on recognising when and why these aspects express and the motive behind their appearance – and Will –

to drive the money lenders from the [Inner] temple, or to go through your [Inner] camp and slay your brothers, neighbours etc. as these are the tribes and nations which re-present the multitude of selfish expressions which darken our inner light - to raise themselves from the lower mind [Egypt] and ascend to the higher mind [promise land, heaven].

Put in even simpler terms, what we have here is a transference of energy, from a Restrictive energy state to an Expansive energy state. The demons are the personification of a behavioural trait or attitude given form to aid the mind in the process of freeing the energy contained within the specific demon/ego targeted, and reclaiming that energy to boost our conscious/soul energy pool to expand our mind and reconnect to our true self and the cosmic life force of which we are just one tiny expression.

This is the origin of Jihad or [W]holy war, it's the internal war we need to fight against our fragmented self to become Whole again, and that in a nutshell is all its ever been, for when you peel back all the flowery language and intellectual padding, this is the primary source of all religions that claim fealty to the "Good", along with their doctrines which are just mere extrapolations and literalisations of the previously mentioned symbolic re-presentations.

Now, on the level of the Corporate State Institutions [the little GODs], by whatever brand it may call itself, these processes and symbols have been distorted and utilised to maintain that fragmentation, for this is what underpins their entire systems, and this is also why Fear, Force and Desire are their primary tools for keeping it that way.

Here is where a look at the concept of E pluribus unum or "Out of many, One" will be helpful. Now the description above may suggest this, but it is important to differentiate what was stated above from that which follows.

Above describes a returning to an original Natural state, we were One, now we are Many, and so the task is to become One again, and this is the origin of the "virgin birth" and how we are then "born again" through our re-binding [re-ligion] to the Natural cosmic life force.

Where as, "Out of many, One" is exclusively about the Creation of an Artificial One, a religio-secular G.O.D. called Governance, "The Beast".

This has an ancient past and can be seen in the Egyptian myth of Isis creating an artificial phallus [obelisk] for Osiris and having a son by him named Horus, it is also evident in the Greek castration myth of Ouranus by his son Kronos, and both of these myths symbolise the implementation of a more restrictive form of governance that binds us to the clock.

They bind us to the clock through their names; Horus gives his name to the Horizon as in Horus rising and also the word Hours which is just an anagram of his name. Kronos [as is Horus] is the Time Lord, Lord of the rings and these rings pertain to the Astrological, Astronomical, Seasonal, Religious and Secular cycles, but also it is about the time management of those they control, as someone has got to dig up their gold and fight their wars and build their temples... etcetera...etcetera

“Out of many, One” in its most idealised expression was with the American Founding Fathers, and they may? have started out in trying to form a benevolent government, but that requires that the Many [which includes the office holders themselves] have the psychological capacity to maintain the ideals set forth, alas this was not the case, as well they knew, and over time the opportunist, goaded on by the financial demi-urges, tore out Americas heart and replaced it with a black cube, and we can all see where that’s led us.

Matthew 7:15 – 20 KJV

<sup>15</sup>Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. <sup>16</sup>Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? <sup>17</sup>Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. <sup>18</sup>A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. <sup>19</sup>Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. <sup>20</sup>Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

In times when this G.O.D. is not able to express its full despotic nature, it will set up front governments, put out some political parties, two mainly but sometimes three to give the illusion of choice but its still pulling the strings behind the scenes.

At somewhat regular periods [although that might just have been confined to the history books] we get to choose from a selection of upwardly docile candydates [probably so named because of their sugar coated syrupy demeanours] from the blue team or the red team, who embark on an election campaign [in China they call it an erection, ‘cos they know they’re gonna get shafted] where they will spend a couple of months lying about how they are the only ones who can make it better and how the other team can only make it worse.

Each team will have its Barnumesque rent-a-crowd of baseball cap wearing, inflatable waving sycophants whooping and hollering at every opportunity, especially if their team rolls out a celebrity or their theme tune pop star, and then all the lighters will be raised as they all start singing “Things can only get Wetter” [cos they have to crowbar in their anthropogenic climate change meme somewhere], and all this is used by the teams to legitimise the entire farce.

And after watching and listening to the constant lies on the economy, health, the law enforcement needed for the latest bogie man [or bogie bug] people actually go out and vote for them! Then all the chosen ones get an official title, here they are called MPs but the US is a tad more blatant calling a spade a spade, and there they are called Representatives.

Representative is a very important term to grasp; a Representative Re-presents you, but after their image, and after their kind, and what is their kind?, well, on one level it is the ideology that the blue or red team uses to define their brand, and as you don’t get to choose what bits you like and don’t like, you’re all in, “warts and all”.

Metaphorically speaking, “after their image” and “after their kind” both refer to the “creeping things that creepeth upon the earth”, and just a cursory glance at this very dangerous freak show that is modern politics, will confirm this simile.

All the ones on the losing side will say “well I didn’t vote for them so I’m not to blame”. Oh, but you are, even the ones like me who don’t ever vote, and that’s because the teams are just an aspect of a larger game that we all signed up to play, evidenced by our NI/SIN [ooh, what a give away] numbers, which means we are subject to every single one of their ordinances, commandments, decrees and other authoritative terms.

Now, as the little hand on our zodiacal clock is on the Saviour [Preserver], when we Naturally spring from our mothers we are all sacrificed to the corporate Beast and then borne again, metaphorically and literally, as a franchisee of, and debt surety for that corporate Beast. And this is a virgin birth [as are all corporations], for the State is an Artificial Father.

And what is a franchise, well; it’s a “licensed contractor to a parent corporation”. And the Birth/Berth Certificate is the receipt that evidences the virgin berth of our corporate entity.

With the Beast assembled and set on its throne, it becomes Parens patriae the abusive Father of the Nation our LORD GOD, and we are its obedient children, “we love you daddy, please stop hitting us”.

And how do we show our love for daddy, well, we partake in its fruits, which are the fruits of another, which is usufruct, which is usury, for this term has a larger meaning than just as interest on debt.

The fruit themselves are the creation of GOD, it imitates the Natural expansion of life force, or “Out of One, Many”, but it is unable to actually create life and so can only create a dead simulacrum that needs to be given life, and that’s where we come in, with our signature.

All documents, identification, court papers, licences and other contracts from GOD will have a place on them to sign, normally at the bottom of the last page but that depends on the form of contract, invariably though there will be a flat line to sign on, and we sign on it or through it, but not below it.

Now imagine if you would a hospital bed, a man has just died [not of CO[r]VID19] and as we pan across to the cardiograph image we see a flat line, we look back to see an emergency team around the man, a shout of “clear”, the body jerks, a look back toward the cardiograph and the flat line is replaced by a rhythmic sign wave that indicates life.

Well done emergency team.

And this is how we give life to the dead, our signature/sign wave on or through the flat line is the heartbeat that brings it into being, and because of our contractual adhesion we become the living dead. Ever wondered why there are so many films and TV shows about zombies...do you think someone is trying to tell us something?

And as a side note, the style of writing most use to sign their name is known as cursive, and so we curse ourselves every time we sign for anything.

And if you think that is not fair because you were never told any of this, well, you are supposed to understand the contracts you make, and are therefore presumed to know the law, and this is why ignorance of the law is no excuse.

The little hand on our zodiacal clock is at the end of the Saviour [Preserver], and Ptah and Jove are preparing us for the Passover, the time to act is now.
